

"ALL'S WELL!"

Eastern Ohio is Now Anything but a "Storm Center."

SINCE THE SCHICK MINE CLOSED

On Tuesday Afternoon the Last Source of Trouble Has Disappeared—Heavy Shipments of West Virginia Coal Passing Through Without Molestation—Staff Correspondents are Leaving this Section—Scovel Goes to Fairmont.

There is nothing startling in the strike situation in this vicinity. An Intelligencer man talked yesterday, with miners and operators, and the certainty of no trouble following is as clear as ever it was, or ever can be, with many men idle. One operator said that he could take a hundred or two hundred of the miners who are on strike and guard any property that might be endangered, if a brawl of any kind should start, more effectively than ten times that many militiamen or United States marshals could do. He said, and is so saying, voiced the sentiment of other operators and thinking people generally, that if the exaggerated reports, or the continued stirring up of rebellious spirits by calling the peacefulness an "ominous silence," should incite the few hot-headed ones, who are always to be found in any kind of a body of whatever class, to even an ordinary row, that the miners themselves would be able to prevent it being a serious disturbance.

There are hot-headed operators, even hot-headed miners, and at times these might say and do things that would excite trouble. But there is an absence of even the dread of this, for the great body on both sides of the contest are of one mind in that respect. The strike will probably end with a reestablishment of the inter-state scale, the breaking of which is the root of all the trouble now and was three years ago. That agreement may not be reached this week, but it will be reached very shortly and the men will be striking the veins of coal literally with more vigor, but not more earnestness, than they are now striking for a condition that will bring them better pay.

Train load after train load of coal came over the Baltimore & Ohio, and went westward yesterday, and the day before, and there has not been a sign of molestation by any of the miners in all this section of eastern Ohio. In fact, the silence, the quiet, is painful, not only to some of the newspapers, but to the slightest suspicious gathering, an ex-who are impatient over the apparent delay in the settlement. But delay is only because of the time necessary to arrange details for the re-establishment of a system that benefitted miners and operators and the general public. What time it may take is uncertain, of course, but the certainty of it ending on amicable terms will prevent any serious trouble. An operator and a miner might get into a quarrel, and this be made the basis of a frightful situation during the suspense, but each would find his fellows condemning his action. The crisis is past in this part of eastern Ohio and there is not an ominous sign to be found outside some vivid imaginations.

FOREIGNERS "CAUGHT ON"

To an Attempt to Vote a Return to Work Up at Dillonvale.

The miners at Dillonvale say that only about thirty have gone elsewhere for work. The company officials have given up the hope of coaxing the miners to go to work, and some half dozen of the United States deputies have left. The company officials say only one-third of the Dillonvale miners are in the union, while leading miners say nearly all are in the union and the rest will be in in a few days. They claim to have seven hundred members now. Yesterday when the miners held a meeting, an attempt was made by a few to capture the meeting, and by a few to go to work, but the foreign miners caught on to the scheme of the company and abandoned the meeting, marched to Long Run and finished their business there.

A REMARKABLE PETITION

Asking Operators to Advance Price of Coal Being Circulated.

A remarkable petition is being circulated in Bridgeport. It is nothing more or less than a petition to the coal operators supplying the retail trade of the town, to raise the price of coal to the consumer two cents a bushel. Possibly this is the first time on record anywhere that a consuming class has appealed to a producing class to raise prices.

The reason for such a remarkable petition is not hard to find. The people of Bridgeport, living next door to a coal producing district, know from personal observation the deplorable poverty and inability of the miners to make living wages at the present mining rates. Without this realization such a remarkable petition would not be possible.

In Wheeling Creek Valley.

Secretary Thomas L. Lewis, of the Ohio miners, paid a visit to several of the mining communities out the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling road yesterday morning. He was accompanied by Sylvester Scovel, the staff correspondent of the New York World. They found everything quiet in that region. Mr. Scovel and wife left yesterday afternoon, for Fairmont, where he will look into the condition of the West Virginia miners, who are continuing at work during the strike.

In the Pan-Handle.

The situation at the mines in the Pan-Handle district of West Virginia remains practically unchanged. This is the only organized district in the state and most of the miners are on strike, but at several of the mines the operators have conceded the sixty-cent rate and the men are at work. It is now said that the miners' officials will follow the example set across the river and endeavor to have the men come out, notwithstanding the fact that the operators are paying what the other men are striking for.

REFUSE TO START.

Benwood Plate Mill Men who Had Agreed to Work Change Their Minds. Last night the Benwood plate mill workers who were willing to go to work to-day, as detailed elsewhere, notified the company that they would not go on this morning. It is said the company relied on these men to start this morning, hence great inconveniences will be suffered. Those who have held out all along for the old wage succeeded late yesterday in bringing all into line.

SEVERAL HUNDRED PEOPLE

Left Wheeling on Two Excursions to Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Several hundred people, from Wheeling and many points in the state, left the city yesterday on excursions on two roads for Niagara Falls and Toronto. Many of the excursionists are going to the international Epworth League convention at Toronto, taking advantage of the cheap Niagara Falls rate, which is much lower than the one-fare rate offered for the regular Epworth League excursions. One train, on the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling, was in personal charge of traveling passenger Agent O. Russell Wood, who will go through to Toronto with the Epworth League train. The train left Bridgeport shortly after 1 o'clock in the afternoon and the excursionists arrived in Cleveland early last evening, in time to attend the Epworth League anniversary reception at Memorial M. E. church, where the Epworth League was born eight years ago. ## TOO MUCH OIL

Being Produced in the Elk Fork Region in Tyler County.

THE PIPE LINE HAS NOTIFIED

Producers in that Territory to Postpone the Shooting of Their Wells, as the Limit of Their Pipe Line Capacity Has Been Reached—The Fire in the Elk Fork Region Has Been Extinguished. The Standard Cuts the Price of Crude.

The big fire which was raging out in the Elk Ford oil region Tuesday, mention of which was made in these columns has been put out and the work of putting in the new rigs for the burned wells has been commenced. The fire consumed in the neighborhood of 1,000 barrels of oil besides the two rigs, engine houses and other buildings in the immediate vicinity of the wells and the total loss will be in the neighborhood of $4,000 to $5,000. This was one of the worst fires ever experienced in the Slatersville field.

For some unknown reason the purchasing agency of the Standard cut the price of oil again yesterday. The only possible reason for the decline in the price of the oleaginous fluid is that the monthly statement of the pipe line companies show that there is an overproduction of about 8,000 barrels a day. While the statement of the pipe lines shows this over production there is a scarcity of oil in some of the markets of the world and the price of refined oil is going up. The Seep purchasing agency yesterday offered the following for credit balances: Tiona, 87; Pennsylvania, 77; Slatersville, 77; Barnesville, 67; Corning, 60; New Castle, 52; North Lima, 49; South Lima, 44; Indiana, 44.

Treat & Crawford have drilled in their No. 6, on the B. F. Hawkins farm in the Elk Fork district, and will have a big producer. The well reached the top of the sand and started off at the rate of 300 barrels a day, and when it was drilled deeper yesterday, it increased its production and is now making about 400 a day. This well is located 400 feet north of their No. 4 on this farm and makes the farm look first class.

Yesterday morning work was commenced on the well on the John Moore farm, at Proctor, after a suspension of about a week on account of an accident in which the stem was bent. This well is one of the most important wild cat wells in this section of the country and if it comes in good will open up a new field.

The well on the Pipes farm, out in the Elk Fork field, which was mentioned yesterday, is still holding up at about 40 barrels an hour. This well is the most important one that has been drilled in out at Elk Fork so far and opens up a large amount of new territory.

The production of the Elk Fork pool is holding up to the 4,000 barrel a day rate in first class style. Following is the gauge of the wells out there which are doing better than 100 barrels a day: Henry Oil Company's No. 1 Pipes, 900; Woods No. 1, 100; Woods No. 2, 100; B. F. Hawkins No. 2, 200; B. F. Hawkins No. 4, 180; Asher, No. 2, 150; J. A. T. Hawkins No. 1, 170; B. F. Hawkins No. 5, 200; Joy No. 2, 150; J. A. T. Hawkins No. 2, 190; J. Williams No. 1, 200; A. S. Keller No. 1, 200; A. S. Keller No. 1, 160; A. S. Keller No. 2, 100; Tuttle No. 2, 200; Foster Oil Company's No. 4 B. F. Hawkins, 120. The wells mentioned above show a production of about 4,000 barrels a day and in addition to these there are quite a number of wells which are making better than 50 barrels a day and not as much as 100.

No. 2 on the B. F. Hawkins farm was shot yesterday and the production increased from less than 100 barrels a day to about 300. All of the wells in the Elk Fork territory when shot respond nicely and are good stayers, as it is necessary to shoot them but once in a great while to make them hold up their production.

The Standard Oil Company, which handles all of the oil in this section of the country has a big job on its hands out in the Elk Fork territory. At the present time, the Standard has only two very small lines running into that field and the production amounts to more than they can handle. They are at work now building a new line from the Pupp station at Braden's station into the field, but the wells are coming in so fast that it is impossible for them to take care of all the oil. It was learned yesterday afternoon that the company had given the producers notice not to shoot wells for a week or it would not be possible to handle the oil. The company is doing everything in its power to take care of the oil but the wells are being drilled so fast it cannot do so.

Treat & Crawford have completed the rig for their No. 6, on the Asher farm, out in the Elk Fork territory and will commence this afternoon to rig it up. Drilling will be commenced at this well within the next couple of days.

NEW TRIAL FOR EATON.

Col. Arnett Makes an Exhaustive Argument Before Judge Hugus.

Yesterday in the criminal court, Judge Hugus on the bench, Colonel W. W. Arnett made an extended and exhaustive argument for a new trial for William Eaton, recently convicted in the criminal court on the charge of burning goods in the Turner building with intent to defraud the Fire Association, of Philadelphia. He argued that there had not been the necessary amount of evidence brought out to warrant the conviction. Messrs. J. R. Somerville and Frank Nesbitt, acting prosecuting attorneys, will reply on behalf of the state and against granting a new trial, at this morning's session of the court.

Contract Let for Benwood Sewers.

The Benwood town council at its regular meeting awarded the contract for laying the sewers in the lower part of town to Matt Dugan, at his bid of $2,800. Market Firmer and More Active, and Prices Remain Firm.

BOSTON, July 14.—The American Wool and Cotton Reporter will say to-morrow of the wool trade:

Not since the excitement in wool began has the market been firmer than during the past week. A leading merchant says that not since 1879 has the market been more active. Prices remain exceptionally firm and in many grades are decidedly higher. A very fair business in domestic wools is now taking place.

MARKED DOWN PRICES—GEO. R. TAYLOR CO.

Marked Down Prices

THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

It is the prevailing custom among merchants to mark down their goods at this season of the year; and in accordance with that custom we have gone over our stock and changed the price of every article of any importance, doing so, not because we have any old or shop-worn goods to get rid of, for our stock is all new and fresh, but because we want to conform to the custom and accommodate the trade with the customary low prevailing prices. The advantage, therefore, in coming to our house to purchase your goods is in getting new and fashionable articles just as low as old stock is offered. We cannot now say how long we shall continue this Bargain Sale, but will do so until this advertisement is withdrawn. In view of the fact that all departments are included in this notice, we cannot, for want of space, particularize in any line.

All are invited to call during the continuance of this, our first
